

The Four Gifts At Home Ornaments

We want your family to tell and retell the good news of the Christmas story. Use the images below to make ornaments or decorations to help your family remember the story. Feel free to print these, decorate them however you want, and hang them. If you want to make your own (like what Patty and James showed in the video) feel free to go to any craft store and pick up supplies!

